Old Business:

1. Reminder of the MS Bike event coming up the first weekend in September. This will be the last one based in Columbia; next year it will be somewhere closer to St. Louis.
2. The Zonta 5K Walk/Run is set for Saturday, September 13th at Memorial Park beginning at 8:00 a.m. We'll need about six volunteers to assist.
3. A hospital net was held on August 6th – Dave Bagge, KDØCCP, was net control. Bill Gerth, W4RK and Jerry Sill, NNØJS, were at Capitol Region. Jon Johnson, KDØITI, Joe Betros, KBØQHZ, and Mike Dolson, NØZH were at the new St. Mary's. The net lasted seven or eight minutes and several other hospitals checked in.
4. A Thank You letter will be sent to Central United Church of Christ for the use of their meeting room. Kent Trimble, K9ZTV, suggested a monetary donation should be included. Karl Schulte, WA2KBZ, made a motion to donate $250.00 and was seconded by Joe Betros, KBØQHZ. The motion carried.

New Business:

1. Rich Kreiser should be back in town by our next meeting.

Announcements:

1. The Joplin Hamfest is set for August 22nd and 23rd.
2. The Lighthouse and Lightship weekend is coming up. There will be many stations on SSB.
3. Oklahoma is the W1AW state this week.
4. Public Service Ham Radio is spotlighted in the September edition of QST.
5. Mike Dolson, NØZH, suggests that club members who attend future classes should sit within the class group, rather than apart from the class to spur interest in the club as well as “mentoring” students as needed.
6. Karl Schulte, WA2KBZ, has a couple of TenTec refurbished radios for sale. If you are interested, contact Karl.

Adjourn: 9:07 p.m.
