District Emergency Coordinator's Report:

Not Present

CW Class:

Bill Gerth, W4RK, reporting: We have a new beginner starting this Saturday.

Training Committee:

Mike Thayer, KMØS, reporting: We are 60% through the Technician Class and are down to 6 to 8 students. Exams will be in mid-December. Our next class will be sometime next spring. Anyone interested in instructing is welcome. A class for new VEs takes about 3 hours – we'll discuss this and report back.

W1AW/0:

Mike Dolson, NØZH, reporting: In our second week, we logged a little over 28,000 contacts for a two-week total of about 55,000.

Old Business:

1. Nominations were opened for all officer positions for the 2015 term. Bill Gerth, W4RK, nominated all existing officers for a second term. Next meeting, additional nominations will be accepted and we will vote on the nominees.
2. Jim Biggerstaff, NØTKN, will complete his term as Director at the end of the year and nominations were opened for his successor. He nominated Kent Trimble for the position. Directors must commit to attending the periodic Board Meetings.

New Business:

1. Are weekly nets considered ARES nets? Tony DeWitt, ACØDQ, will check and report next meeting.

Announcements:

1. John Patterson, WCØW, has postponed his presentation on his V31TP DXpeditions to Belize until February due to work and travel.
2. We currently do not have a presentation for our December meeting. If anyone wants to make a suggestion or volunteer, contact Mike Dolson, NØZH. Otherwise, we may not have a program.
3. Congratulations to Karl Schulte, WA2KBZ, for his article published in CQ Magazine.

Adjourn: 2015
